Free your IP team to focus on higher return functions

While budgets are tight, staffing is even tighter. Organizations are constantly looking for ways to streamline workflow and operate more effectively.

What if your team members could focus all of their energy on mission-critical activities, while we manage the day-to-day processing and other administrative tasks for you?

Shifting your routine IP tasks to a trusted partner gives you the confidence that your data is correct and your rights are being maintained so that you can concentrate on the issues that are most important to your organization. Giving us the responsibility of hiring, training, managing and maintaining top notch IP administrative talent takes the burden off of you. It also allows you to redeploy key staff to more strategic functions, which can enhance job satisfaction and improve retention. The result, a win-win situation for you and your employees.

Be confident with accurate, efficient and secure processes

With IP now considered the leading asset for many organizations, it's vital that each matter is properly tracked and managed so that rights are protected and value is maximized.

We use Lean Six Sigma principles and our deep expertise in best practices process development to ensure that you receive the accuracy and efficiency that you require for docketing and other administrative tasks. Additionally, we have numerous security measures in place to minimize risk and guarantee that your confidential data is safe, including ISO 27001 Certification for our global services.

Enjoy the benefits of global support

Our blended approach allows you to enjoy the cost savings of a global delivery team, while communicating your needs directly with someone who is more local. Share your needs with your local liaison, and they will ensure that the work is completed correctly, economically, and on time.
