Merging Two or More Researcher Profiles (Identified by a green tick)

It might happen that you have more than one Researcher Profile, due to different institutions and email addresses you had during your career. If you want, you, as an author, can merge all your Researcher Profiles into one. To do that go to your name in the upper-right corner → Settings → Account Settings → Delete/Merge Account. You will be prompted to enter the ID of the profile you want to merge, and your request will go to the support team, which will send you an email with further instructions.

The screenshot shows the 'Account sign in & security' page in the Web of Science interface. Three numbered callouts provide instructions:

1. Click your name in the top-right corner of the screen, then select Settings from the dropdown menu.
2. In the sidebar, click on Account Settings.
3. You will be directed to the Account Sign-In & Security page, where you can merge the account.

The page content includes a 'Return to Web of Science' link, a 'Delete/merge account' tab, and a form to request account deletion or merging. The form has two radio button options:

- ☒ I need to merge duplicate accounts Need help with merging account?
- ☐ I am no longer getting any value from my account

Below the radio buttons is a text input field labeled 'Enter ResearcherID of duplicate accounts' with a placeholder 'ResearcherID' and a 'Submit ResearcherID' button. At the bottom are 'Submit request' and 'Reset' buttons.
