Cortellis

How to refine results

Easily refine your search results to find the most relevant information with the Filters function of Cortellis.

1. Access individual filters on the left side of the search results page. Click Show all filters or the Filters links in the results table to show all of them.

2. Use multiple filters in combination to quickly and precisely refine your results.

For more information contact Customer Service at LS Product Support