

Cortellis Drug Discovery Intelligence

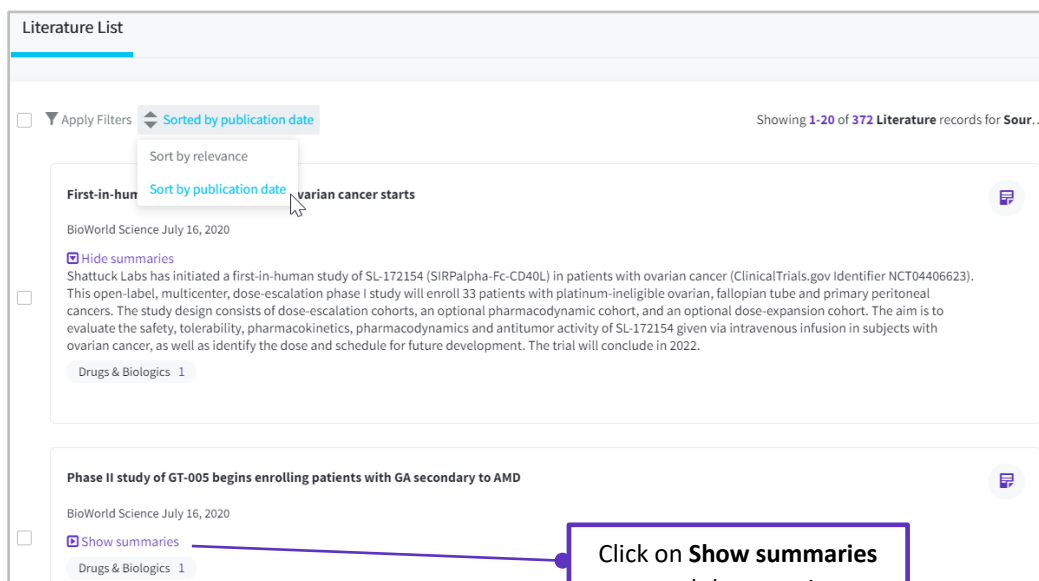

Receive the Latest News in your inbox

The Latest News on the landing page of Cortellis Drug Discovery Intelligence comes from Bioworld Science, another one of Clarivate's solutions. Learn how to set an alert to receive the Latest News every day in your inbox in 3 easy steps.

1. Go to Literature Advanced Search and search by Source: Journal – Bioworld Science. The example below is also filtering by Available Since to only retrieve recent news.

2. The results page will show all the Latest News articles that have been published since June 1st 2020. Sort by publication date to see the most recent articles on top.

3. To receive all the Latest News articles in your inbox going forward just go to Options (...) at the top right of the results page and use the Save & Alert functionality.

The screenshot shows a 'Save & Alert' dialog box with the following fields:

- Query Name: Source: Journal: BioWorld Science AND Availab... (with an 'Add description' link)
- Details section:
 - Query: Source: Journal: [BioWorld Science] AND Available Since: From 01/06/2020
 - Knowledge Area: Literature (372 Results)
 - Filters: (empty)
- Set up an Alert
- Frequency: Daily (dropdown menu)
- Email(s): nuria.forns@clarivate.c... (with a close icon and a note: 'Add more emails separated by (,) commas.')
