

Case study | Johnson & Johnson

Making data driven decisions with reliable intelligence

Johnson & Johnson (J&J) experienced difficulties keeping up to date on the global drug pipeline and spent considerable time and expense gathering and analyzing data from multiple sources, so it turned to Cortellis Competitive Intelligence™ for help.

J&J's top drivers for subscribing included:

- More pipeline data than anywhere else - 73 K+ pipeline drug programs.
- More early phase pipeline data than anywhere else - 20 K+ assets.
- Depth and breadth of global coverage - drug programs and companies from 100+ countries.
- Accuracy and timeliness of data.

Cortellis Competitive Intelligence has helped J&J to:

Save 4-5 hours per week due to increased productivity.

Apply reliable data to confidently make strategic decisions.

Anticipate market changes that could have potentially impacted its portfolio.

Identify and monitor competitive threats and finding white space.

"Cortellis Competitive Intelligence has saved my organization considerable money as we've reduced the expense of gathering and analyzing data from multiple sources."
