Privacy Notice for events and communities

Effective date: December 1 2020

Last Updated: November 1, 2024

This Privacy Notice for Events and Communities (“Notice”) supplements the Clarivate Corporate Privacy Notice and only applies to personal data collected and processed by Clarivate (“Clarivate,” “us,” “we,” or “our”) when you register for, use or participate in any Clarivate event, webinar, training, or online community or forum (each referred to as a “Program”).

Personal data collection for Programs

If you register for a Program that we host or sponsor, we may ask you to provide your name, e-mail address, a username, photo or other biographical information, such as your occupation, industry, location, social media profiles, company name, areas of expertise and interests.

Personal data use for Programs

We process your personal data related to Programs for the purposes of:

- Managing Program registrations, accounts and attendance;
- Facilitating your access or attendance to a Program;
- Providing you with information and services related to the Program;
- Planning, development, operation and hosting of Programs;
- Sending Program related communications to you; and
- Other customary purposes related to the operations of a Program.

Personal data sharing for Programs

Your personal data will, depending on the purposes of processing, be disclosed to different individuals and organizations as set forth below:

- Any personal data you choose to submit or post to one of our blogs, chat rooms, online communities or forums may be read, collected, or used by others who visit or use these Programs and could be used to send you unsolicited messages by those individuals. We are not responsible for the personal data you choose to submit in these forums.
- By registering for or attending an event, webinar or training your name, job title and company may be included in an attendee list for distribution to other registrants, attendees or Program sponsors. Please let the event team know if you wish to be exempted from the list. In some cases, attendee lists will not be available for a Program.
- We may share personal information, including photos and videos taken during the event, on our social media channels and other promotional platforms to highlight the event and showcase participant engagement. By attending, you acknowledge and consent to the potential use of your image for these purposes. If you prefer not to have your image used, please notify us during the registration process or inform an event staff at check-in.

Your privacy rights

Depending on where you are located or where you reside, you may have certain rights granted to you over your personal data. Click here for more information on privacy rights or to make a request.
