Find patents in your space with Cortellis: Selecting and applying filters

Go to the filter(s) of interest and select your desired options.

The screenshot shows the 'Filter' dialog box in Cortellis. On the left, a list of filter categories includes Company, Drug, Indication, Action and technology, Patent (highlighted with a purple box and a purple circle containing the number 4), Abstract classification, Date, and Term adjusted. The 'Patent' category is selected, and its sub-filters are displayed on the right. These include 'Patent authority' with 'European Patent (5,863)' and 'US (6,382)' selected, and 'Patent type' with 'Product (6,827)' selected. Other patent types listed include Formulation (3,261), New use (2,795), Product (Macromolecule) (2,393), Diagnostic, Analysis and Assay (1,908), Drug combination (1,083), Drug discovery & screening, genetic screening and combinatorial (549), Product derivative (438), Drug delivery device (407), Digital Health (125), Enabling technology (71), and Peptide technology (60). A 'Select all' link is visible next to the 'Patent type' header. At the bottom left of the dialog is a 'Clear all' button, and at the bottom right is an 'Apply' button (highlighted with a purple box and a purple circle containing the number 5).

Cortellis editors read through each patent and index them to make them searchable/filterable by patent holder name, indication, and other fields.

Once you have finished selecting filters, click Apply to retrieve your results.
