

Terms and Conditions

2021 Eugene Garfield Award for Innovation in Citation Analysis

The Eugene Garfield Award™ was established in 2017 to commemorate the contribution of Dr Eugene Garfield made to Clarivate™ as the founder of the Institute for Scientific Information (ISI)™ and the inventor of the Science Citation Index™, now the Web of Science™.

1. Nature of the Award
 - a. The annual award shall consist of a monetary award, $25,000 USD, to be presented to the winner.
2. Purpose of the Award
 - a. The purpose of the award is to recognize an individual or individuals for a new research project into the innovative use of citation analysis.
 - b. The award is intended to support and to fund a new research project or extend an existing research program that will have the potential to have a significant impact in the field of bibliometrics.
3. Eligibility
 - a. Persons involved in innovative citation analysis research or developmental programs are eligible for the award.
 - b. The award is to be made for an individual, or a group of researchers, not for an organization.
 - c. Those who have received the award in previous years are not eligible to apply again.
 - d. For 2021, all applicants must be an early-career researcher, no more than PhD + 10 years at the time of application.
4. Applications
 - a. Applications for the award shall be sought annually by Clarivate. They may come from any source and be sought by publicity through appropriate media. Applications are to be submitted via electronic mail to GarfieldAward@clarivate.com, unless otherwise instructed.
 - b. The application package shall consist of the following information in English in PDF format:
 - i. A standard CV
 - ii. Letters of recommendation, and for those not holding a tenured or tenure track position, one of the two letters of recommendation shall be from a senior member of the department
 - iii. The application form
 - c. The application form includes the following:
 - i. Name, Contact Information

- ii. Current Position/Title
 - iii. Current School/Institution
 - iv. PhD Institution & Year of PhD
 - v. Research Description (no more than 2 pages)
 - vi. Project Proposal (no more than 3 pages)
5. Selection Committee
- a. The Eugene Garfield Award Selection Committee shall be composed of Clarivate staff.
6. Selection of the Awardee
- a. Pre-screening:
 - i. Clarivate staff will review all applications that are received to ensure that the information is complete and credible and that the applicant is eligible for the award.
 - ii. Clarivate staff will select the top applications based on the novelty, quality and innovativeness of the applicant's research program and will determine a shortlist to be forwarded to the Selection Committee.
 - b. The members of the Selection Committee will review relevant application dossiers of the shortlist of candidates and assess the novelty, quality and innovativeness of the applicant's research program and determine the utility of the program on relevant industry challenges.
 - c. The selection committee will also give consideration to how appropriate the applicant's research program relates to the research legacy of Dr Eugene Garfield.
7. Presentation of the Award
- a. The award is expected to be announced at the STI 2021 conference on September 13.
8. Deadlines
- a. Applications must be submitted to Clarivate by 11:00 pm US Eastern Daylight time Friday June 25, 2021. All submissions shall be acknowledged within 2 business days.
 - b. Selection shall be made by September 1, 2021.
9. Data Protection
- a. By submitting an application for the Eugene Garfield Award, your details and contact information will be retained and used by Clarivate in accordance with its Privacy Statement which can be viewed at <http://clarivate.com/privacy-statement/>.