NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISIONS IN YOUR AGREEMENT WITH MARKMONITOR TO THE CONTRARY, AND TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY FOR ANY FAILURE BY DYN TO PROPERLY PERFORM THE SERVICES WILL BE THE SERVICE CREDITS DESCRIBED BELOW.

Dyn is bound by confidentiality obligations protecting your confidential information in a manner which is consistent with the existing confidentiality obligations in our agreement.

The PDNS services can be altered or discontinued by Dyn at its sole discretion upon 120 days’ prior written notice to you. In any event, however, you always have the right to terminate all or any portion of the services for any reason upon at least thirty (30) days’ prior written notice.

During your service period, Dyn is obligated to provide access to the nameserver infrastructure controlled or deployed by Dyn in connection with your PDNS services ("Nameserver Infrastructure"). The Nameserver Infrastructure does not include any application protocol interfaces, zone transfer mechanisms, update systems, and other customer-accessible data access or manipulation methods (collectively, “Peripheral Infrastructure”) provided by Dyn in connection with the PDNS services. Any failure by Dyn to provide the services for periods which exceed the Outage periods defined below (“Outages”) will result in the issuance of a credit to you ("Service Credit"), which will be your sole remedy for any such Outages. Any Service Credits will be applied to the month following issuance, or, where your services are terminating, will be applied to extend your service period for an additional period equivalent to the fees for such additional period.

Claims for Service Credits must be made by you via email to customer.service@markmonitor.com as soon as possible after the occurrence of an Outage, but in no event more than three (3) days after the Outage, and must be accompanied by relevant details and supporting documentation. Claims made more than three (3) days after an Outage will not be eligible for a Service Credit. MarkMonitor will forward all claims to Dyn, which will have sole discretion over the determination of whether an Outage has occurred.

The following constitute an “Outage” for purposes of determining the availability of Service Credits:

- The period of time during a customer’s service period in which Dyn’s Nameserver Infrastructure does not respond to DNS queries for more than fifteen (15) consecutive seconds; and
- The period of time during which Dyn’s Peripheral Infrastructure is unavailable for more than four (4) hours out of any thirty (30) day period in which customer’s services are provided.

Provided, however, that any error, delay, downtime or unavailability of the PDNS services resulting from the following (“Exclusions”) will be excluded from the determination of any Outage: (i) any suspension or termination of the services pursuant to the PDNS service requirements, your agreement with MarkMonitor, or MarkMonitor’s agreement with Dyn; (ii) any actions or inactions by you or a third party; (iii) any failure to comply with any usage limits applicable to the services; (iv) any inaccurate or insufficient information or configurations provided or set by you or your authorized users; (v) the failure to use all four (4) DNS nameserver hostnames provided by Dyn; (vi) any misuse of the services; (vii) any errors, delays, downtime or unavailability from your or a third party’s equipment, application programming, software, systems or networks; (viii) any network unavailability outside the Nameserver Infrastructure or the Peripheral Infrastructure; (ix) malicious acts by a third party against you, MarkMonitor, their respective agents or suppliers; (x) any scheduled maintenance or emergency maintenance by Dyn; (xi) acts of terrorism, cyber terrorism, or God, or any other event of force majeure; or (xii) any other event outside Dyn’s reasonable control.
Non-refundable service fees for the PDNS services will be invoiced to you monthly based upon your actual usage at a rate of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per million queries per month, rounded to the nearest whole million. There are no extra fees for zones or records, both of which are unlimited to you. Additional service add-ons which are offered by MarkMonitor may be provided at your request for additional applicable monthly fees. All fees are subject to applicable sales taxes, which will be your sole responsibility without any deduction from or offset against the service fees.

Each User will (a) ensure that they have the right to add Reviews they submit to Publons, and (b) permit us to carry out related activities like verifying the Review and suggesting reviewer candidates to editors. Publons (i) will endeavor to maintain anonymity where requested, (ii) enable Users to choose whether or not they would like Reviews added to their User’s profile; and; (iii) may work with publishers to enforce anonymity for or prevent the publishing of a Review. We sometimes partner with third parties such as publishers to automatically transfer Users’ reviews and personal data to Publons. Publons will do its best to verify Reviews, however it does not make any representation, warranty or commitment about accuracy or reliability of any Review or information within it and are not responsible or liable to the User or any third party for what is said in a Review or elsewhere on the website.

When signing their Review or comment, each User will ensure they have a completed profile (profile picture, bio and affiliations, and publications) so readers can see the User’s credentials and place the Review in context.

Monitoring of compliance, etc. Publons may periodically (but Publons does not undertake to) check Reviews for non-compliance with Publons policy and guidelines. In cases of non-compliance Publons will endeavor where practicable (but does not undertake) to contact Users and provide an opportunity for the Review to be amended. Publons reserves the rights (a) not to publish any Review, (b) to amend any Review at any time, and (c) to remove any Review or any other content without notice and where practicable will endeavor to notify the User(s) concerned of removal. By performing Activities and submitting content, the User grants Publons a licence to use the content which (unless otherwise stated, and subject to any other express restrictions) shall be on the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Public License as amended or replaced from time to time (“CC BY 4.0”). The User will retain copyright, but the license allows Publons to share, copy, distribute, transmit, adapt and make commercial use of the Review throughout the world, in any media, without needing to provide additional permission, or to pay any royalties, provided appropriate attribution is made to the author or source.

Publons will: (a) process User Data on your behalf, for the purposes of the subscribed services and for no other purpose, acting as a data “processor” as defined in applicable data protection laws; (b) only post Reviews publicly if the relevant journal has opted to set a review policy that allows public posting of the Review and the Reviewer elects to post the review; (c) gather feedback about the service and (d) for no other purposes except as expressly authorized by the User. In situations where Publons acts as a data processor on your behalf, all communications with the relevant Users are to be approved with you in advance, provided that once a User 'opts in' to the service, we may communicate directly with the User and the frequency, content and method of such communication will be at our sole discretion. Upon termination or expiry of the agreement, you agree that we may contact Users for the sole purpose of obtaining their agreement to retain the User Data on our service. If the User does not agree, or if they do not respond, the User Data will be destroyed 30 days following that contact being made. If the User has 'opted-in' or registered for the service during the term their User Data will be retained by us following termination without further agreement being required. You acknowledge and understand that your purchase, download, and/or use of a form document from us is neither legal advice nor the practice of law. You further acknowledge and understand that that each form and any applicable instructions or guidance obtained from us is not customized to your particular needs by us. It is ultimately your responsibility to engage an attorney and to understand the terms that control that separate engagement.
