

PRODUCT / SERVICE TERMS

These Product/Service terms apply to certain products and services that you access through our platform(s), website(s) or are otherwise identified in your order form, statement of work or other ordering document (collectively “order form”). If you have ordered or are accessing a product or service that is not listed below, then this document does not apply to your order. “We”, “our” and “Clarivate” means the Clarivate entity that is providing the product(s) or service(s) concerned and, where applicable, its affiliates.

InCites

1. Benchmarking and Analytics. (a) License. You may view and use the customized data and datasets for analyzing and benchmarking researchers, institutions, journals, countries and regions. (b) Extracts. You may include limited extracts of our data that have no independent commercial value and could not be used as a substitute for any service (or a substantial part of it) provided by us, our affiliates or third party providers, in internal documents and systems that are your property, provided that you do not create a searchable database. (c) Distribution. You may distribute limited extracts of our data that have no independent commercial value and could not be used as a substitute for any service (or a substantial part of it) provided by us, our affiliates or third party providers, to third parties as incidental samples for illustrative or demonstration purposes only. (d) Your Materials. Article metadata and metrics relating to materials authored by your faculty, students or affiliated researchers, and your demographic information, may be (i) downloaded to and maintained within an internal system that can be accessed and viewed only by your faculty, students and affiliated researchers; and (ii) incorporated into internal reports that are your property.

2. My Organization. (a) License. Article metadata and metrics relating to materials authored by your faculty, students or affiliated researchers, may be (i) downloaded to and maintained within an internal system that can be accessed and viewed only by your faculty, students and affiliated researchers; and (ii) incorporated into internal reports that are your property. (b) Content Upload. You may upload content relating to your departmental structure and publication data of your actual or potential faculty members, staff, students, affiliated researchers. Your content may consist of personal data and information about the individuals’ publications and research, and may be extracted from (i) your internal systems and repositories; (ii) our proprietary data sources; or (iii) publicly available data sources. Each of your administrators may also submit content to the extent it pertains to your actual or potential faculty members, staff, students, affiliated researchers. Content uploads must be in accordance with applicable laws and our standard templates, guides, policies, formats and applicable specifications in effect from time to time. (c) Processing of User Data. We may process User Data on your behalf, for the purposes of matching content across your subscribed services to create derivative works, metrics and reports, and for no other purpose, acting as a data “processor” as defined in applicable data protection laws. “User Data” means personal data belonging to your faculty members, staff, students, affiliated researchers and provided to us by you or your administrator in accordance with the agreement and applicable laws, including but not limited to personal contact details, but does not include data we have obtained from other sources, including when provided to us directly from the individual. (d) My Organization API License. API refers to the application programming interface connecting you with the data within the article metadata and metrics in the My Organization interface. You may use the API: i) edit your researcher and organizational data within My Organization; and ii) to access up to 10 requests per second to refresh the data fields from publications associated with your employees and students, as applicable.

3. Journal Citation Reports. (a) License. In the ordinary course of your business you may view, use, download, and print Journal Citation Reports data as required for the activities you carry out individually or as part of your employment, and you may include insubstantial portions of extracted Journal Citation Reports data in your work documents and reports so long as such documents or reports (i) are for the benefit of (and belong to) your organization, and (ii) have no independent commercial value and could not be used as a substitute for any service (or a substantial part of it) provided by us, our affiliates or third party providers. (b) Further Distribution. You may also distribute Journal Citation Reports data: i) amongst authorized users within your organization; ii) to government and regulatory authorities investigating you, if specifically requested; and iii) to persons acting on your behalf, to the extent required to advise you, provided they are not competitors of Clarivate. Wholesale sharing / distribution of Journal Citation Reports data or using downloaded Journal Citation Reports data to create a derivative database, product, or metrics other than as permitted by these Terms is strictly prohibited. (c) Attribution. If you quote or excerpt Journal Citation Reports data as expressly permitted above, you must appropriately cite and credit the Journal Citation Reports and/or Journal Impact Factor source as Clarivate products. For example, “2016 Journal Citation Reports (Clarivate , 2017).”

Use of the Journal Citation Reports and Journal Impact Factor trademarks is permitted only to the extent necessary to communicate your inclusion in the Journal Citation Reports. Your use of the Journal Citation Reports and Journal Impact Factor trademarks shall not falsely suggest an affiliation, sponsorship, or endorsement with Clarivate or its products or services.

For researchers in bibliometrics only: We understand that Journal Citation Reports, Journal Impact Factor and underlying Clarivate data may be a resource for researchers in bibliometrics. If your intended use is not covered by these Terms, please send a written request outlining the specific material involved, the approximate number of copies you wish to distribute and the purpose and format of use to our Copyright Office at <https://clarivate.com/legal/copyright/>.

For journal editors and publishers only: If your organization’s work is listed in Journal Citation Reports, the following additional rights and guidelines apply:

- Please feel free to utilize the Journal Impact Factor badge sent to you (or please contact Clarivate Publisher Relations to obtain a badge at publisher.relations@clarivate.com) to display on your webpage showing that you are listed in Journal Citation Reports.
- Review the Promotion Guidelines for promotional language and an explanation of the process by which journals are selected for Web of Science indexing and listed in Journal Citation Reports. You can also communicate your new Journal Impact Factor directly to researchers through the newly expanded Web of Science Author Connect list services.
- These terms apply to all uses of Journal Citation Reports, regardless of your product package or how you subscribed to Journal Citation Reports.
