

PRODUCT / SERVICE TERMS

These Product/Service terms apply to certain products and services that you access through our platform(s), website(s) or are otherwise identified in your order form, statement of work or other ordering document (collectively “order form”). If you have ordered or are accessing a product or service that is not listed below, then this document does not apply to your order. “We”, “our” and “Clarivate” means the Clarivate entity that is providing the product(s) or service(s) concerned and, where applicable, its affiliates.

Cortellis API

1. Standard API License. (a) Service. Use of the service delivered via the API under this Standard API License is subject to the usage rights and restrictions set out in the agreement. (b) License. You may use the API to access the service to extract, maintain, display and use data or to perform specific numerical or statistical analyses to produce reports for the number of end users defined on the order form within your own company for internal business purposes. Results of analyses must not be disclosed to any other person by any means whatsoever, save to the extent expressly permitted in the agreement. (c) Limitations. Use of the API is limited to 3,000 calls per minute for the permitted users of the API. Downloading of unlimited amounts of data is prohibited. You must inform and secure approval from us in order to share API access with any third parties, and such third parties may be required to enter into an agreement with us directly in order to access the API. (d) Reporting. You will report to us any change in the number of users accessing the API underlying data or in API usage outside of the scope of your current API license. (e) Usage. You are not entitled to automatically download, text mine or index Content. Additional fees may be payable following a reported increase in the number of users (defined as any individual accessing content from the API(s) either directly or indirectly) or change in usage. License rights continue until the end of the term of the service. Our API keys must not be: (i) shared in any way; or (ii) used to create products or services detrimental to us, our affiliates or third party providers. You must demonstrate interfaced systems if reasonably requested by us. (f) Third Party Applications. You may use the Cortellis API with authorized third party platforms. A full list of such authorized platforms is available on request and may change from time to time. (g) Effect of Termination. Except to the extent we have agreed otherwise, upon termination, all your usage rights end immediately, and you must return or destroy all Clarivate property including our data delivered via the API and, if requested, confirm this in writing. End User is defined as anyone who views the data, or output based on the data, through a display or report or uses the data for performing numerical or statistical analyses or producing reports.

2. Advanced API License. (a) Service. Use of the service delivered via the API under this Advanced API License is subject to the usage rights and restrictions set out in the Standard API License and the following additional usage rights and restrictions. (b) License. You may download unrestricted data volumes and text or data mine data elements derived from the service delivered via the API for your own internal, non-commercial business purposes. You must not distribute, sublicense or otherwise disclose to any third party any portion of the service or any derivative works, save to the extent expressly permitted in the agreement. Should the number of End Users increase within the term of the agreement, you will inform use and accept any price review in line with this access for the remainder of the current term.
