TERMS OF USE

These Terms of Use govern your use of the Clarivate web pages and products (each a “Site”) that link to these Terms of Use as well as services or Data offered in those Sites by Clarivate (“we”, “us”, “our” or “Clarivate”). By using a Site, you are agreeing to comply with and be legally bound by these Terms of Use. We may change these Terms of Use at any time without notice to you. Your use of a Site after any changes have been posted will constitute your agreement to the modified Terms of Use and all of the changes. Accordingly, you should read these Terms of Use from time to time for any changes.

Some of the Sites have additional terms that relate to specific products or services you are using, available at http://terms.clarivate.com. If you are accessing a Site pursuant to a separate agreement between Clarivate and you, your employer or your academic institution (your “License Agreement”), your use of the Site is also governed by that License Agreement. The additional product and service terms and your License Agreement (collectively “Additional Terms”) will take precedence in the event of a conflict with these Terms of Use. If you would like to understand more about all of the rights that you have to use the Site or our Data (as defined below), you should ask your employer or academic institution, or you should contact our Global Customer Support Center.

1. Ownership
   (a) Intellectual property. The Site contains proprietary technology and copyright material owned by Clarivate and/or our third party licensors. All use of the reports, graphics, images, documents, materials, or other content accessible on our Sites (“Data”) is restricted and must comply with these Terms of Use and, as applicable, the Additional Terms. More information can be found in our Copyright Notice.
   (b) Trademarks. 'Clarivate' and our product and service names are trade or service marks of Clarivate or its affiliated companies. All other product and service names cited are trademarks of their respective owners. More information about fair use, general use and a list of Clarivate marks can be found in our Trademark Notice.
   (c) Usage information. We may collect information related to your use of our Sites. We may use this information for legitimate business reasons including without limitation to recommend products, services or functionality that may interest you, to test and improve our products and to protect and enforce our rights under these Terms of Use, and may pass this information to our third party providers for the same purposes. Our use of your personal information will be in accordance with applicable law and our Privacy Notice.

2. Your rights of use
   (a) License. Clarivate grants you a limited license to access and make personal use of the Site, subject to these Terms of Use.
   (b) Restrictions. The Site and Data may not be used, reproduced, duplicated, copied, downloaded, scraped, sold, resold, visited, reverse engineered, decompiled, merged, disassembled, distributed, transformed or otherwise exploited, in whole or in part (including via hyperlink), including to create derivative works or for any commercial purpose without the express written consent of Clarivate. You may not use any robots, spiders, crawlers or other automated downloading programs, algorithms or devices, or any similar or equivalent manual process, with our Data for any purpose including to continuously and automatically search, scrape, extract, deep link or index any Data, or cause disruption to the working of the Site or any other person’s use of the Site. Further, you must not, and may not permit others to, reproduce or otherwise use the Data in any manner in conjunction with any artificial intelligence, machine learning, algorithms or models (“AI Technologies”) or for the purposes of training such AI Technologies to generate text, voice, graphics, videos or other output, including without limitation, such technologies that are capable of generating output similar to the Site or any Products. You agree that any such use will amount to a breach of Clarivate’s intellectual property rights and not subject to the ‘fair use’ or ‘fair dealing’ exceptions (or equivalent exceptions) under applicable laws. For the avoidance of doubt, exercising legal rights that cannot be limited by agreement is not precluded.

3. Licensed products
   (a) Limited access. Certain parts of the Site provide access to products or services that require a separate license or subscription from Clarivate (each a “Product”) and are accessible only by using access or login credentials. If you have not been issued with access or login information by us, your academic institution or your employer you should not use that Product. You may not disclose your login token, password or any other authentication information in order to access our Products. You are responsible for all activities that occur in connection with your login credentials, and you agree to notify us immediately of any unauthorized use of your password or account.

(b) Internal Use. You may use our Products only for your own internal business purposes subject to these Terms of Use and, as applicable, the Additional Terms. Where Products provide you with access to Data, subject to the restrictions in 2(b), you will generally be entitled to (i) search, access, download and print reasonable amounts of Data reasonably required for your own work use and for your employer’s internal business purposes; (ii) distribute copies of Data to other individuals who you know are users of the Product within your organization; (iii) include insubstantial portions of Data as incidental samples or for illustrative or demonstration purposes, including in reports prepared for internal business purposes and provided that you include the following acknowledgement: “Source: Clarivate Analytics.” We determine a “reasonable amount” of Data by comparing your download activity against the average annual download rates for all Clarivate clients using the Product. We determine an “insubstantial portion” of downloaded Data to mean an amount of Data taken from the Product which (1) would not have significant commercial value of its own; and (2) would not act as a substitute for access to a Clarivate product for someone who does not have access to that product.

(c) Retention. You must cease accessing the Product and delete all Data obtained from such Product once your license to the Product ends.

4. User content

(a) User material. The Site may have features which allow you to comment on, engage in discussions or otherwise upload, submit or post content, information, graphics, videos, images or links to the Product (collectively, “User Material”). User Material is subject to these Terms of Use and, as applicable, the Additional Terms. You hereby agree not to upload, submit or post any User Material that (a) is abusive, illegal, defamatory, indecent, obscene, offensive or threatening in any way; (b) is unrelated to the Product; (c) violates anyone’s copyright, trademark or other proprietary right; (d) interferes with the privacy of another user; (d) contains a virus or any other harmful components; (e) contains false or misleading statements; or (f) gives rise to any liability or violates any applicable local, state, federal or international law or regulation. When uploading, submitting and/or posting User Material, it’s your responsibility to ensure that you have all the necessary legal rights to upload, submit or post your User Material. We are under no obligation to separately review any User Material to check that you have the right to carry out such activities. We may remove User Material if it breaches these Terms of Use or is otherwise illegal or infringing any third party’s rights without consultation or notification.

(b) License. We acknowledge that, as between us and you, intellectual property rights in the User Material are owned by you or your licensors. Where you upload User Material to a Product, you grant us permission to use, store and process User Material in accordance with these Terms of Use and applicable law, including to sublicense the same to our subcontractors as required. Further, when you post, comment or otherwise upload User Material to a public or semi-public Site, including but not limited to a community page or blog, you grant us a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, publish, broadcast and reproduce such User Material without limitation in any and all media, worldwide, in perpetuity, for any purpose whatsoever. Where you provide any comments, recommendation, suggestion or ideas, or any other feedback related to our products, data or services (“Feedback”) we may use and exploit such Feedback without restriction or obligation to you and you will not obtain any rights in our products, data or services. We may retain the User Material for the same purposes after you have ceased using the Site. Where User Material contains your personal information, we will comply with applicable law and our Privacy Notice.

5. Third party content

If the Site includes data and software from third parties, you must also comply with any additional terms we are required to pass through to you. Please refer to our third party terms available at https://clarivate.com/terms-of-business. The Site may also contain links to third-party web sites maintained by others. These links are provided solely as a convenience to you and not as an endorsement by us of the contents of any such third-party web sites. We are not responsible for the content of linked third-party sites and do not make any representations regarding the content or accuracy of materials on such sites. If you decide to access linked third-party web sites, you do so at your own risk.
